

Day 1 Wednesday 9 November

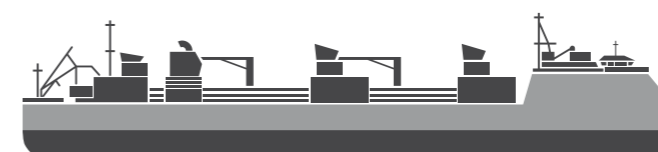

Morning session

8am	Trade exhibition hall opens
Strengthening our foundations
9.00	Conference introduction	Don Heatley AO
9.05	Welcome to Country	Larrakia Nation
9.20	Welcome from the Chair	Troy Setter Chair, LiveCorp
9.30	Keynote: Thoughts on leadership	Major General Stephen Day Soldier
10.15	What we've learnt from 2011 Since the suspension of live exports to Indonesia in 2021, the trade has evolved as a result of changes that have been hard won, profound and at times unimaginable. This panel will take stock and reflect on the lessons learnt over the past decade.	Moderator: Tracey Hayes Facilitator, live export class action
		Peter Barnard Managing Director, Oliver & Doam
		Greg Pankhurst Feedlot consultant, Lampung Livestock
		Donal Sullivan Pilot, Heli-Muster NT
11.00	Morning tea
Opportunities and challenges
11.30	Ministerial address (video)	Senator the Hon. Murray Watt Minister for Agriculture, Fisheries and Forestry
11.40	Biosecurity threat outlook: 2022 in focus	Dr Beth Cookson Deputy Chief Veterinary Officer of Australia
12.10	Practicalities, challenges and gaps in biosecurity preparedness	Luke Bowen Deputy CEO - Agriculture and Fisheries, NT Department of Industry, Tourism and Trade
12.40	Lunch

Day 1 Wednesday 9 November

Afternoon session

International perspectives
13.40	Key dynamics in the Indo-Pacific region	Greg Sheridan Foreign Editor, The Australian
14.10	Discussions in international fora about Australian agriculture	Su McCluskey Special Representative for Australian Agriculture
14.40	An international perspective on Australia's live export trade and future opportunities This panel will provide an in-market perspective of the unique value proposition of Australian livestock, including customer expectations and requirements, changing cultures, nutrition, economics and other factors which affect market demand.	Moderator: Su McCluskey Non-executive Director, LiveCorp
		Neny Lumbantoruan Chair, Forum AWO (Indonesia)
15.25	Afternoon tea
Focus on northern Australia
15.55	Political address	TBC
16.10	NT - the pastoralists' perspective	David Connolly President, Northern Territory Cattlemen's Association
16.40	The evolution of the NT buffalo industry This panel will discuss the challenges and opportunities presented by buffalo in the NT, and as a growing segment of the live export industry.	Moderator: Tom Dawkins CEO, NT Buffalo Industry Council
		Adrian Phillips President, NT Buffalo Industry Council
		Byron O'Keefe O'Keefe Pastoral Company
17.10	Close of Day 1	Don Heatley AO
18.00	MSD Coopers Animal Health welcome reception

Day 2 Thursday 10 November

Morning session

8am	Trade exhibition hall opens
A global outlook
9.00	Conference introduction	Don Heatley AO
9.05	Welcome from the Chair	David Galvin Chair, Australian Livestock Exporters' Council
9.15	Market outlook for Australia and its global competition	Angus Gidley-Baird Senior Analyst - Animal Protein, Rabobank
9.45	The OECD perspective (video)	Mathias Cormann Secretary-General, Organisation for Economic Co-operation and Development
9.55	Animal welfare: challenges for the meat and livestock sector - the European perspective	Carolina Cucurella Senior Veterinary Advisor, European Livestock and Meat Trades Union
10.25	Morning tea
Tackling sustainability, together
10.55	Red meat: solving the climate challenge	Jason Strong Managing Director, Meat & Livestock Australia
11.25	Sustainability and ESG - trends and implications	Robyn Leeson Vice-Chair - Global Sustainability Standards Board, Global Reporting Initiative
11.55	Balancing production and protection	TBC
12.25	Lunch

Day 2 Thursday 10 November

Afternoon session

From here to there, through innovation
13.25	Regulation for the future	Moderator: Wayne Collier Chief Executive Officer, LiveCorp Ross Carter Inspector-General of Live Animal Exports Grant Barnes Chief Regulatory Officer, Natural Resources Access Regulator
14.10	From precision livestock management to smart livestock farming	David Lamb Chief Scientist, Food Agility CRC
14.40	Afternoon tea
Creating connections
15.10	Growing community awareness and empowering the supply chain	Milly Nolan Program Manager, The Livestock Collective
15.40	Strengthening foundations and creating connections - how do we get 'there'? The future is unpredictable and rapidly evolving. This panel will discuss opportunities for the livestock export sector to strengthen foundations, create connections, focus on improvement, and build resilience, sustainability and growth.	Moderator: Prue Bondfield Non-executive Director, LiveCorp Camille Camp Assistant Manager, Kalyeeda Station Ceny Hussie Depot Manager, Roebuck Export Depot Ollie Thorne Vessel coordinator, AUSTREX Yudhistira Pratama S. Chief Supply Chain officer, Halleen Australasian Livestock Traders
16.25	Close of Day 2
18.30	IDEXX pre dinner drinks
19.30	Nutrien Ag Solutions / RTA gala dinner and charity auction

