

8:00	Trade exhibition hall opens
Charting the course
We set the scene for LIVEXchange by highlighting the role of livestock exports in geopolitical and trading relationships, and discuss how it's changed since the modern industry began.
8.45	Conference introduction	Terry Enright Conference MC
8.50	Kicking off the conversation	Troy Setter Chair, LiveCorp
9:00	Ministerial address	Hon Jackie Jarvis MLC WA Minister for Agriculture and Food
9.10	KEYNOTE: Politics and partnerships: livestock exports in a global economy An exploration of the geopolitical significance of livestock exports.	Hon Andrew Robb AO Chair, the Robb Group
9.55	Steering the industry: 50 years of progress The evolution of livestock exports over the past 50 years, especially from Western Australia – from markets to management practices, and the partnerships and investments along the way.	Moderator: Dr Peter Barnard Managing Director, Oliver & Doam
		Steve Meerwald Former Chair, WALEA
		John Edwards Former Chair, WALEA
		John Cunningham Chair, WALEA
10.40	Morning tea
Sheep insights and global impact
Western Australia supplies nearly all of the sheep exported from Australia. This session will provide a first-hand snapshot of the WA flock and associated sectors, and explore Middle Eastern cuisine.
11.10	Markets in motion: supply, demand and competition An overview of international livestock markets.	Andrew Cox General Manager International Markets, Meat & Livestock Australia
11.30	Ewes and views A snapshot of the WA sheep and wool industry.	Moderator: Erin Gorter Rural Industry Consultant
		Steven Bolt Principal, Wogerlin Merino stud
		Darren Spencer President, WA Shearing Industry Association
		Jan Cooper Chief Executive Officer, Livestock and Rural Transport Association of WA
12.15	Farm gate to foreign plate A demonstration of breaking down a lamb carcass and the Middle Eastern dishes prepared with different cuts.	Sam Burke Corporate Chef, Meat & Livestock Australia
		Rafael Ramirez The Meat Specialist
		Naglaa Elkott Executive Chef, Al Mawashi
12.55	Lunch

The power of sentiment

Why should industries care about the community's sentiment toward them – and what can they do to maintain or improve it? This session will provide some answers, and reveal the latest research on attitudes towards livestock exports.

13.55	Charting confidence through community sentiment The science behind community sentiment and results from the latest survey about livestock exports.	Dr Kieren Moffat Chief Executive Officer and co-founder, Voconiq
14.25	Mining the message: community driven change Lessons from the mining industry.	David Parker Executive Director - Western Australia, Minerals Council of Australia
14.55	Earning trust: a collective response Empowering an industry in response to community sentiment.	Dr Holly Ludeman Managing Director, The Livestock Collective
15.25	Afternoon tea
Red tape and talking straight This session will explore the regulatory landscape across different industries and reflect on strategies used in the pursuit of reform.
15.55	Address from the Shadow Minister	Lachlan Hunter MP Shadow Minister for Agriculture and Food, Parliament of Western Australia
16:05	Flock me, what a year! A candid look at two pivotal years in Australia's livestock export industry.	Mark Harvey-Sutton Chief Executive Officer, Australian Livestock Exporters' Council
16.25	A fireside chat with the Spud King Reflections on the 'potato war' and farming in WA.	Tony Galati Chief Executive Officer and joint owner, Galati Group
		Harold Sealy Alinta Energy
16.55	Close of day 1	Terry Enright Conference MC
18.00	IDEXX Laboratories welcome reception

IDEXX

8.00	Trade exhibition hall opens
Leadership in a global economy
As a major agricultural exporter, Australia relies on free and fair trade and its ‘clean, green’ reputation. This session highlights the work that’s being done – and needs to be done – to support that.
9.00	Welcome to day 2	Terry Enright Conference MC
9.05	Continuing the conversation	David Galvin Outgoing Chair, Australian Livestock Exporters' Council
9.15	Ministerial address (video)	Hon Julie Collins MP Federal Minister for Agriculture, Fisheries and Forestry
9.25	When disease goes global: impacts and interventions The impact of livestock diseases on market access and trade.	Dr Mark Schipp Former Australian Chief Veterinary Officer and Former President, World Organisation for Animal Health
10.10	Morning tea
Markets on the mooove
Our focus for this session is northern Australia and the live cattle supply chain, from the farm gate to the innovative businesses in destination markets.
10.40	Integrity, commitment and Australian beef A journey from humble beginnings to a vertically integrated business in the Philippines.	Raymond Hernandez President and Chief Executive Officer, RSRH Livestock Corporation
		Spencer Whitaker Trade and Market Access Manager - Indonesia and Asia Pacific, Meat & Livestock Australia
11.10	You herd it here An exploration of the synergies between the pastoral industry and live cattle exports.	Moderator: Kristy O'Brien Journalist, Australian Broadcasting Corporation
		Paul Holmes à Court Owner and Chief Executive Officer, Heytesbury Pastoral
		Travis Robinson Chair - WA Chapter, Australia Indonesia Business Council
		Tony Gooden Sales Director, Frontier International
11.55	High tides, high tech Insights into the challenges of northern port operations.	Chris Ciriello Executive Manager Corporate and Commercial Development, Kimberley Marine Support Base
12.15	Lunch

Ship shape: innovative livestock logistics

Technology and data are changing the way the world works, and livestock exports are no different. This session will highlight innovations in infrastructure, measurement, management and reporting which are improving efficiency and animal welfare.

13.10	Live and loaded: shipping smarter Hear about the latest advancements in shipboard technology, and the global livestock fleet.	Lennart Ephraim Managing Director Chartering and Operations Vroon, Livestock Express B.V.
13.30	Handled with care: livestock in transit What's it like on a livestock export ship? Find out in this interactive session.	Dr Renee Willis Australian Government Accredited Veterinarian (shipboard AAV) Patrick Coole LiveCorp Accredited Stockperson Tiffany Davey LiveCorp Accredited Stockperson
14.00	Address from the WA Opposition	Basil Zempilas MLA Leader of the Opposition/ Leader of the WA Liberal Party
14.10	Afternoon tea

Future ready: the final word

There's a new generation making its mark in livestock exports, and this session will feature a panel confident in the prosperous and sustainable future of the industry. The conference will wrap up as it began, with a focus on the role of the industry in international relations – this time with insights on the nutrition it provides to families and their communities.

14.30	Challenges, changes and champions The next generation outline their role in the future of the industry.	Moderator: Dean Ryan Principal/Managing Director, Central Stockcare Pty Ltd Jack Webb General Manager - PT. Indonesian Livestock Operations, AAM Investment Group Cindy Heryanti Project Supervisor, Forum AWO Indonesia Billi Marshall Owner and Director, Imperial Bovine Breeding Services
15.15	Protein with purpose: nourishing global communities A look at how livestock exports are supporting global public health through improved access to nutrition.	Dr Anneline Padayachee The Food Scientist
16.00	Close of day 2	Terry Enright Conference MC

Gala dinner

To wrap up LIVEXchange, we present the Young Achiever and Lifetime Achiever awards, and hold our fundraising auction.

18.30	ACE pre-dinner drinks
19.30	Halleen Australasian Traders / Heytesbury Pastoral gala dinner	